Section 5 The quorum for the Annual Meeting or a special meeting of the Association shall be twenty percent (20%) of the Fellows.

ARTICLE 8 ELECTIONS, RESIGNATION & FILLING OF VACANCIES & RECALL

Section 1 Elections:

A. The officers of the Association, as defined in Article 4 of the Constitution, shall be elected by the Fellows in good standing. Election procedures are to be determined by the Nominations & Election Committee and approved by the Executive Board. All Fellows shall be notified in a timely manner of the candidates and procedures for voting. Those elected to office shall hold such office in accordance with the provisions herein stated.

B. At the time of the adoption of this Constitution and By-laws, the serving President, Regional Vice Presidents, Secretary, and Treasurer shall fulfill the terms to which they have been elected.

C. The Nomination and Election Committee shall solicit nominations from Fellows in good standing. At the earliest possible time prior to the Annual Meeting, but not later than thirty (30) days prior to said meeting, the nomination report shall be directed to all eligible voters along with a ballot. Completed ballots will be returned to the Committee for counting.

D. In order to be a nominee, a candidate for office shall be a fellow in good standing.

E. Only Fellows in good standing may nominate a candidate.

F. At the Annual Meeting the Chairperson of the Nomination Committee shall present the results of the election. Newly elected officers shall assume their positions at that time, except for the Treasurer in accordance with the provisions of Article 5, Section 5.
Section 2  Resignation and Filling of Vacancies

A. An officer resigning from office shall submit such resignation in writing to the Secretary of the Association. If the Secretary is the resigning officer, the resignation shall be submitted to the President.

B. If the President shall leave office for any reason before the expiration of their term, the 1st Vice President shall become President and the 2nd Vice President shall become 1st Vice President. The new President shall then appoint a 2nd Vice President, with the advice and consent of a majority of the Executive Board. The appointed 2nd Vice President shall hold office until the next scheduled elections of the Association. At the next scheduled elections of the Association the Acting President shall become President and the Acting 1st Vice-President shall become 1st Vice-President as set forth in Article 4, Section 2.

C. If the 1st Vice President shall leave office for any reason before the expiration of their term, the 2nd Vice President shall become Acting 1st Vice President. The President shall then appoint a 2nd Vice President, with the advice and consent of a majority of the Executive Board. The appointed 2nd Vice President shall hold office until the next scheduled elections of the Association. Prior to the next scheduled elections of the Association the Executive Board shall determine the best course of action to ensure that an orderly process of succession occurs as called for in Article 4, Section 2.

D. If any other officer of the Association shall leave office for any reason before the expiration of their term, the President shall appoint a replacement, with the advice and consent of a majority of the Executive Board. The appointed replacement officer shall serve out the remainder of the term of the officer that they are replacing.

Section 3  Recall

A. Officers of the Association may be recalled for any violation of the Constitution & By-laws, violations of policies or rulings of the Executive Board, or for inattention to the duties and responsibilities of their office and to assignments from duly elected officials or the membership, when such assignments are reasonable and lawfully given, or because of inability to perform the duties of the office in a manner satisfactory to the Executive Board of the Association.

B. Filing of a motion for recall:

1. Should any officer desire to file a motion for recall against another officer of the Association pursuant to this section, they shall file a written statement of facts supporting such motion with the President (or the next ranking officer if the charges have been filed against the President).

2. Should any member desire to file a motion for recall against any officer of the Association pursuant to this section, the member must be a fellow in good standing. The motion shall include a written statement of facts supporting such motion. The motion must be accompanied by a petition in support of the motion by twenty percent (20%) of the Fellows in good standing. The member shall file the motion and the petition with the President (or the next ranking officer if the charges have been filed against the President).

C. It shall be the duty of the President (or the next ranking officer if the charges have been filed against the President), upon receipt of any such motion for recall in writing, to forward a copy of the documentation to the accused person(s) and all unaffected members of the Executive Board. The accused person’s copy of the documentation shall be sent to them by U.S.P.S. certified mail with return receipt.

D. The accused person shall within fifteen (15) days of the receipt of the mailing:

1. resign their office effective immediately, or

2. not respond to the charges, in which case the President (or the next ranking officer if the charges have been filed against the President) shall declare the office vacated on the sixteenth (16th) day following the receipt of the mailing of the written documents by the accused, or

3. respond to the charges in writing and request the matter be decided at a meeting of the Executive Board, or

4. respond to the charges in writing and request the matter be decided by the Fellows in good standing of the Association at a meeting of such persons.

5. At any such meeting described in section (c) or (d) above, a majority vote of those present and voting shall decide the matter. The vote at any such meeting shall be considered final.

6. Should the accused fail to appear at any such meeting requested as specified in sections (c) or (d) above, the President (or the next ranking officer if the charges have been filed against the President) shall declare the office vacated.

7. Should a vote be to remove the officer, the officer shall be deemed removed from office immediately and the office shall be declared vacant.

8. Any vacancy created as result of proceedings held in accordance with the provisions of this section shall be filled as provided for by Article 8, Section 2 of the Constitution and By-laws.

ARTICLE 9   COMMITTEES

Section 1   Standing committees of the Association shall be the Auditing, Constitution & By-laws, Membership and the Nomination & Election committees. Membership on committees may be drawn from the Regional Delegates or from the Fellows in good standing with the Association and as specified in the following sections. The President shall designate a chairperson for each committee whose duties include reporting to the President and the Executive Board.

Section 2   Auditing Committee:

A. The President, with the approval of the Executive Board, shall appoint an Auditing Committee, who shall inspect the fiscal records of the Association prior to the Annual Meeting and report their findings to the membership.

B. The Auditing Committee is to consist of at least one Fellow that is not a member of the Executive Board.

C. If any irregularities are noted, the committee shall immediately inform the President and the Executive Board. The Executive Board shall convene to review the irregularities and determine if further action is warranted.

Section 3   Constitution & By-laws Committee:

A. The President shall appoint a Constitution and By-laws Committee. One member of this committee shall be designated to serve as the Parliamentarian for the Association. The Parliamentarian shall serve as the chairperson of this committee.

B. The Constitution and By-laws committee shall have the duty to draw and propose amendments to the Constitution and By-laws.

C. Suggestions, proposals, or orders pertaining to the Constitution and
By-laws shall be presented to this committee for approval before being presented to the membership for action.

Section 4 Membership Committee

A. The President shall appoint a Membership Committee. One member is to be designated as the Membership Coordinator and shall be the chairperson of this committee.

B. The Membership Committee shall work with the Regional Delegates to facilitate recruitment and retention of members.

C. The Membership Coordinator shall work with the Treasurer in the processing of new and renewed memberships.

Section 5 Nomination and Election Committee:

A. The President shall appoint a Nomination and Election Committee. The duties and responsibilities of this committee shall be those as set forth in appropriate sections of Article 8 of the Constitution & By-laws of the Association.

Section 6 The President shall have the authority to appoint such other committees in accordance with Article 5, Section 1, Paragraph D.

ARTICLE 10 CONFERENCE DIRECTOR

Section 1 As soon as feasible after the Executive Board has established the dates and location of the Annual Meeting, the President shall appoint a Conference Director. The Conference Director should be from the region in which the annual conference has been sited.

Section 2 The Conference Director shall, at the direction of and in conjunction with the 2nd Vice President, bring about all local arrangements for the Annual Meeting. These arrangements shall include, but are not limited to: overnight accommodations for attendees, securing adequate meeting space for sessions and receptions, planning conference meals, and obtaining the necessary equipment and supplies for conference presentations.

ARTICLE 11 RULES OF ORDER

Section 1 Parliamentary procedure for meetings where the business of the Association is conducted shall be governed by Robert’s Rules of Order (Revised) where they are consistent with the Constitution and By-laws of the Association.
ARTICLE 12 AMENDMENT PROCEDURES

Section 1 The Constitution & By-laws may be amended upon petition of one-third (1/3) of the Fellows submitted to the Secretary at least sixty (60) days prior to the Annual Meeting. A simple majority of the Executive Board may also submit amendments to the membership, through the Secretary, at the Annual Meeting. The amendment(s) must be passed by at least two-thirds (2/3) of the Fellows present and voting.

Section 2 Proposed amendments shall be sent to the membership at least thirty (30) days prior to the Annual Meeting.

ARTICLE 13 DISSOLUTION

Section 1 If the Executive Board determines that it is necessary or advisable to dissolve the Association, it shall call a meeting of all members of the Association, of which not less than thirty (30) days’ notice (stating the terms of the resolution to be proposed) shall be given.

Section 2 If the proposal is confirmed by a two-thirds (2/3) majority of those present and voting, the Executive Board shall have the power to dispose of any assets held by or on behalf of the Association in accordance with applicable state or federal statute, law or regulation.

Section 3 Upon the dissolution of this Association, any assets remaining after the satisfaction of any proper debts and liabilities shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose.

Section 4 A copy of the statement of accounts, or account and statement, for the final accounting period of the Association must be prepared by the Executive Board for all such purposes as may be required.
